

Project Title:	Sustainable Agricultural Technical Support and Environmental Education in Kandal province, Cambodia, (AICA 3).
Donor:	INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION AGENCY (AICA)
Project Term:	24 months: 1 st October 2013 to 30 th September 2015
Budget:	USD 21,848.40
Project Staff:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 1 Project Manager (part-time) • 1 Field Trainer
Target Areas:	30 villages in Kandal Steung district of Kandal Province
Beneficiaries:	Up to 3,30 rural poorest farming households in Cambodia benefit with the increase in income and be food-sufficient as well as be able send their children go to school every day
Project Goal:	To promote sustainable agricultural techniques to encourage capacity development of human resources in the environmental education and to secure the environmental benefits. The Project also promotes primary education because of its importance as the basis of sustainable development and global environmental conservation.
Specific Objectives:	(1) 70% of the poorest family groups practice sustainable agriculture (agriculture satisfying both environment and development) and realize the merits. (2) Environmental and agricultural leaders in the villages are trained as CBFs, and an enabling environment for the capacity development of the next generation even after the termination of the Project is built.
Anticipated Results and Project Activities:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Training of project staff - Conduct baseline survey for target families - Training and coaching support to Community Based Facilitators (CBFs) - Training for Target Families by CBFs - Monthly Supporting for Target Families by Field Trainer and CBFs Purchasing Seed for Providing to Target Family - Creation of an educational tools “Sustainable agriculture and environment” - Establishment of International Ecological Village Center